Meet the Faculty Mr. Steve Wagner

What inspired you to pursue a career in religious education?

I had to switch careers about ten years ago due to an injury. Before teaching, I was a police officer for twenty years.

What do you find special about SPM?

The sense of community here at SPM. The feeling that all of our students are not just a random name or number. They all belong to an incredible community fabric that allows us to fulfill our mission.

When did you start working at SPM?

Well, I don't come to work, I come to school! I began at SPM (May 2009) in the Jr. High with Patrick Myshrall (16yo boy w/Downs Syndrome), I then followed Patrick here to the High School and when a position in the Social Studies department opened up, I transitioned into that.

What is your education background?

I earned my Associates Degree in Criminal Justice from Quinsigamond Community College I earned my Bachelors and Master's Degree in Criminal Justice from Anna Maria College.

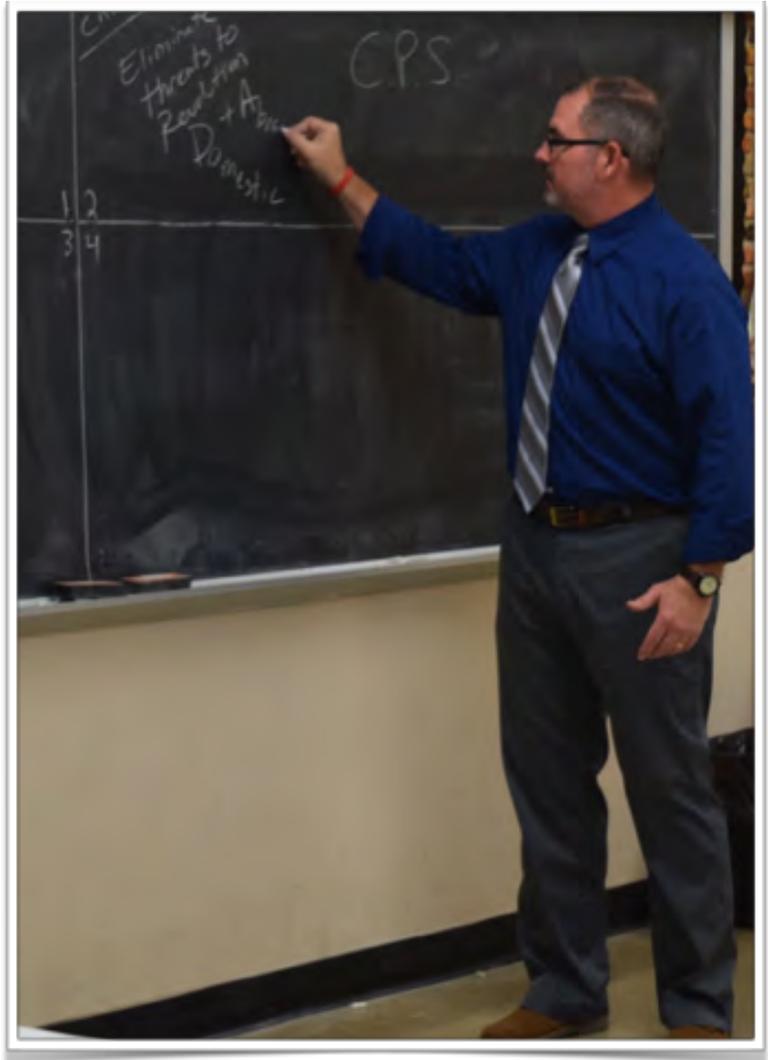

Do you have a favorite quote/scripture/prayer that you draw motivation and inspiration from?
Psalm 23 The Lord is My Shepherd/Be Not Afraid

What do you enjoy doing in your free time when not in school?

Spending time with my family and riding my Harley Davidson

Anything else you would like us to share

I feel blessed to be part of this community and I do not take for granted the struggles and hardships our families encounter to send their children to SPM and receive a Catholic Education.
